Contingency

Our Contingency insurance provides coverage for a wide range of events, such as concerts and exhibitions, to protect the organizer against financial loss caused by cancellations or disruptions for various reasons.

No two events are the same, which is why we always offer tailored coverage to fit your specific event requirements and needs.

The insurance will incept concurrently with the time the organizer assumes risk.

- Tailor-made coverage options
- Wide range of insured limits available
- Inception from the moment the organizer is at risk
